

PRESS RELEASE - 10th GLOBAL HAPPINESS AWARDS

(March 24, 2014 - Los Angeles, California, USA) 2 Aussie Ladies to be Honored on Global Happiness Day in WASHINGTON, DC along with America's royalty First Lady Michelle Obama & Entertainer Madonna on 1 April 2014.

It is the 10th Global Happiness Day Awards on 1 April 2014 honoring 5 amazing ladies. Happy Charity donates 100% of funds raised to help those in need of Health, Hope & Happiness.

The Global Happiness Awards this year comes at a very poignant time, while the President is dealing with global crisis, the First Lady is spreading global happiness and is therefore being honored with a Happiness Award. Let Happiness reign every time!

Michelle Obama – for her work inspiring young families to eat healthier and for her 'Move Campaign' to spread the happiness bug.

Madonna – For spreading happiness with her music, empowering women they can be, do and have it all, whilst staying true to themselves.

British Born-Australian – Dr. Shelley Sykes founder of the Happy Charity both in Australia and the USA – a mother of a special needs child, Shelley lends a hand to those in need of Hope and Happiness and helps them find a way to stay 'Syked Up'.

Australian Sonya Ottaway – Director of KPMG and President of Netball America will receive the Happy Charity Action Award for her philanthropic work providing opportunities to youth across the USA and inspiring them to be empowered and become leaders in their community.

Jennifer Hill – A Beverly Hills beauty, who has overcome cancer and severe disabilities, will receive the Global Happiness Day – Hope Award.

The two Aussie ladies Shelley and Sonya will be in Washington D.C. for interviews on March 31 in preparation for 1 April 2014 (1/4/14) Global Happiness Day, which began back in Sydney on 05/05/05 and has been celebrated for 10 years on auspicious dates 06/06/06, 07/07/07, 08/08/08 etc.

Former honorees include His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Dr Edward de Bono, Patch Adams and a plethora of celebrities who help to spread the happiness bug to the masses.
